

The Parents

We will do our best to ensure that:-

we build a positive partnership with the school for the benefit of our child.

our child attends regularly and arrives punctually and properly equipped. Personal items are clearly labelled with checks made at the beginning of each term.

we encourage our child to be organised and reliably responsible for themselves and their belongings.

we inform the school of the reasons for absence by telephone or letter BEFORE 8.50 a.m. in the morning.

we avoid taking our child on holiday during term time.

we support the school's values, discipline policy and rules by encouraging a positive attitude towards school.

we encourage our child's effort and achievement.

we provide working space and a quiet environment for homework.

we attend parents' meetings and bring any concerns promptly to the school's attention.

our child goes to bed at a sensible time during the school week.

we inform the school about any factors, including medical information, which might affect our child's work, welfare or behaviour.

we encourage our child to walk to and from school each day.

School

We will do our best to ensure that:-

we build a positive relationship with parents in the best interests of their children.

children are well taught, cared for and treated fairly.

parents are given early warning of any problems with their child's work or behaviour.

appropriate action is taken in cases of pupils' misconduct or unauthorised absence.

attention is paid to any parental or community concerns or complaints.

parents are kept informed about the curriculum and teaching methods, and are invited to be involved in school activities.

the children are provided with a safe and secure environment and that the Health and Safety policy is reviewed regularly.

parents are offered regular information about their child's progress, and are invited to meet their child's teacher two times a year. Further concerns can be dealt with by an appointment made through the School Office. Parents are invited for an open afternoon once a year.

A written report is sent to parents annually, and the teacher is available to discuss this report if parents would like to do so.

Inspire Every Pupil

At Amherst we have six values and six simple school rules attached to each value. We will do all we can to model and teach your child the importance of each value. Please support us in encouraging your child to aspire to these values.

The six Amherst values and rules:

Trust	We will act responsibly and honestly to earn the trust of each other at Amherst School.
Kindness	We will treat everybody and everything with care and respect at Amherst School.
Determination	We will work hard to do our best even when things are difficult.
Politeness	We will be well-mannered and courteous towards everyone at Amherst School.
Fairness	We will treat everyone as our equal at Amherst School.
Cooperation	We will all work together to include each other as a team at Amherst School.
