“...findings indicate that at the end of Year 2, children who received the Lexia programme excelled in reading and made one month of additional progress in comparison with their peers in the control group.” (EEF, 2022)

2. MA Books

- 20-30 minutes
- Please complete corrections from the previous week
- Independence vs. parent support (show with *)
- We will try our best to help the children with tricky questions one-to-one in class

Times Tables

- Times Tables Rock Stars
- Weekly differentiated times tables tests
- Teachers reassess appropriate level through the year
- Children encouraged to 'compete' against themselves
- Children have the option to take their tests home

(The government's Year 4 Multiplication Tables Check will take place in the Summer Term, testing all up to 12×12 .)

3. Reading

Planners in on Fridays

- What to write?
- Which books to read?
- How to support at home:

It is most effective for children to experience a mixture of reading independently, reading aloud with an adult and listening to an adult or an audiobook.

Please also monitor your child's comprehension by chatting to them about their what they've been reading.

- Parent Readers

The Importance of Reading for Pleasure

How reading frequency and purpose correlates to 2006 PIRLS literacy scores for England

“The key finding is that frequent reading for pleasure is correlated to higher PIRLS literacy scores. However, reading for information is much less well correlated.” (DfE, 2012)

A Few Odds & Ends

- Unstructured free play.
- “Cultural capital”: going to museums, libraries, dinner-time conversation about the world, etc.
- Participation in the arts (e.g. dance, drama, music).

PTA Video

After This Meeting

- Once we have finished in the hall, there is the opportunity to visit your child's classroom.
- If you are ready to leave even after five minutes, please don't feel pressure to stay!
- We have individual Parent Consultations in November to discuss your child's academic progress.
